

Bargaining Update

Contract Negotiation Session #5 - 5/29/2024

Quick Overview: School Committee and Union made some tentative agreements, Dr. Zrike gave a prep time presentation, and June 24th they will give us a wage and leave proposal!

Updates

1. The Union and School Committee reached tentative agreements for our PSRP Unit that include 3 more sick days, 2 more religious holidays and 1 more personal day - finally providing leave equity between the two bargaining units.
2. Dr. Zrike gave a presentation giving the union information he gathered around prep time. He agrees that Elementary Education and the ECC deserve more prep time. He did not express that the middle school or high school need more prep time.
3. The school committee committed to providing responses on priority issues including wages at our next bargaining session on June 24th. .
4. Show your support and come to our next bargaining meeting on June 24th!

Silent Representative Observation:

"This was a very productive meeting and I hope the School Committee continues this productivity with their response to our wage and leave proposals."
